December Holiday Meeting will be on December 13th at the Freighthouse. White Elephant gifts this year. No Chinese raffle. More details will be forthcoming.

February's meeting will be on February 15th with guest speaker Jonah Larson-Crochet Prodigy. Meeting place TBD.

Barb will distribute members' birthdays. You are encouraged to send your sister a birthday card on her birthday.

Yellow cards were distributed for members to write one thing they appreciate about being part of DKG.

There was a discussion to create teams and assign them a "working" DKG sister. Groups will be created randomly. Your group will make decisions on how to move forward. Throughout the year, some suggestions were that your team can send classroom materials, cards, treats and maybe even encouraging thoughts to your teacher. Barb will create the groups.

Minutes respectfully taken by Jan Marson

Guest speaker Sue Berg, retired middle school teacher from Viroqua, talked about how she created the book Driftless Gold. She talked to her inspiration supporters and the work behind creating her novel. She signed books for members.
