New Member News

Mary Wetterlin will be rejoining Our Alpha Omega Group this next year.

State Convention Update

Reviews of the State Convention were shared. They were done in a 3-2-1 format and were positive overall. Special thanks to Carol and Mary who put together the baskets for our group. Thanks too to everyone who participated. Next year's convention will be in Fond du Lac. After the 2020 convention the state conventions will be held every other year and will the first week of May.

Feed the Kids

The Feed the Kids program was defined and was discussed as a possible opportunity for us to give back to our community. This program feeds local kids in need. Jan will send the specifics of the program to us to provide more information and in the meantime our group will drop off items identified by the program as being needed. Drop off is Salvation Army. We will look at how we can support this program more in the future.
