Special guest-Jonah Larson Crochet Prodigy Wisconsin Boy Is Hooked On Crocheting And Giving Back

Jonah told his personal journey from being abandoned at birth, left wrapped in a banana leaf, to moving in and out of oprahangees and finally being adopted by his forever family. Crocheting was introduced to him by his mother to help him as a way to relax from his poor behavior. Jonah crocheted his first dishcloth at age 5 and has not stopped.

You can find more information about Jonah on his website.
